REMEMBERING PASTOR MITCHELL

Pastor Milliard R. Mitchell was born on June 9, 1935, in Scott Depot, WV. He grew up as a young boy living in the Bills Creek area before moving to Boone County during his grade school years. During high school, his family returned to Putnam County where he graduated from high school. He married Emma Mae Peterson on August 5, 1955, and graduated from Baptist Bible College in 1956.

In 1962, he was led by the Lord to start a church in Nitro, WV. Seventeen years later in 1979, he founded Calvary Baptist Academy as a ministry of Calvary Baptist Church. CBA opened its doors for the first school year with 22 students enrolled, and he continued to serve as pastor at CBC for 40 years and mentor to Principals Ron Radford and Milton Thompson at CBA before retiring in 2002.

Pastor Mitchell entered Heaven to meet Jesus on August 31, 2024, after a faithful ministry for the Lord. His impact will truly be felt for many decades through the lives impacted at CBA. Calvary Baptist Academy is grateful for his vision and his endeavoring support of the academy!
